"[Peace] must be good and just for all, for Palestinians and Israelis. the road map is the humanity between us, not the territory." –Dr. Izzeldin Abuelaish, whose three daughters were killed in Gaza in January 2009

"I hope Israelis and Palestinians can achieve peace, that they can build democratic and peaceful societies for their children's benefit." –Nevet, Seattle

"I was shocked to see how little people were thinking about the consequence [of the boycott], and how little people were thinking about how does it make a Jewish person feel to select just one country out of many. –Member of the Olympia Co-Op, that decided to boycott Israeli products

"Bringing this [boycott, divestment and sanctions] movement into all of these small communities around the Unites States through our local food co-ops creates a climate of fear and terror for Jews."–Member of the Olympia Co-Op
